

EXPERIMENTAL RESULTS ON FLUCTUATIONS AND CORRELATIONS AS SIGNATURE OF QCD PHASE TRANSITIONS IN HEAVY ION COLLISIONS

Gary Westfall

National Superconducting Cyclotron Laboratory and Department of Physics and Astronomy
Michigan State University

East Lansing, Michigan 48824-1321 USA, westfall@nscl.msu.edu

We will present current results for fluctuations and correlations from SPS and RHIC experiments. We will discuss the importance of the correlation and fluctuation measurements during the upcoming low energy run at RHIC and systematic program at the SPS in terms of the search for the QCD critical point.